

November 9, 2007

A few quick reminders...

Thank you so much for taking the time over the past 2 weeks to meet with me about your child's progress. I hope that any questions or concerns you had were answered.

1. The Thanksgiving Program is next Thursday, November 15. Please arrive on time. The program lasts about 20 minutes and a short gathering will take place after, with food and drink. The morning program will start at 10:45 and the afternoon program will start at 2:40.

2. Book orders are due at the latest by Tuesday, November 13th. Remember books make great gifts. If you are getting books as gifts, please write it on the slip and I will contact you when the books come.

3. Thank you to everyone who volunteered to bring in an item for us to use for our baking day. On the day of the program we will have a short get together where you will get to take home our baking. If you would like to bring something to share (Chex mix, carrots, cookies, brownies, etc...) the day of the program that would be wonderful.

4. I am in the process of collecting jar/bottle lids of all kinds to use for sorting and classifying in the classroom. It would be wonderful if everybody could collect lids/tops at home over the next few weeks and send them in so we have a variety of lids and tops. I will even take care of washing them.

Happy hunting😊

Have a wonderful weekend. See you on Monday😊

Katie Ekstrand