

November 15, 2007

A Brief KINDERTALK...

Well by now I am sure many of you know what we have been doing over the past few weeks! The kids did a great job yesterday! They sang their hearts out and had a great time. Thank you to all the parents who contributed to the baking project, donated food for the gathering, helping in the classroom with the costumes, and attended the program. We could not have had such a successful day without you.

Looking ahead to next week, remember there is no school next week. Enjoy the long holiday break. If you are traveling, have a safe trip☺ When we get back from break I will have a copy of the Thanksgiving Program for all of the kids to take home. The disk can be used in a DVD player or on the computer. I hope you enjoy it. Sorry I could not have them for today, but my secretary (Mr. Ekstrand) needs his sleep☺ and would charge me overtime after 10pm☺

While you are on break, don't forget to look for lids and tops to jars. We are looking for all different colors, sizes, plastic and metal, and whatever else you can find. Thanks so much for the variety that have already been turned in.

Have a Wonderful Holiday,
Katie Ekstrand